

CHORLTON ARTS FESTIVAL 2012

APPLICATION FORM

Chorlton Arts Festival is now inviting submissions for 2012. As ever we are looking for brand new performances in music, comedy, cabaret, spoken word and interactive events, as well as exhibitions and artworks in unexpected places.

In 2012 we launch the Festival's digital arts programme alongside the Chorlton Weekender, a celebration of new music and digital arts across a number of Chorlton venues. If you feel your application could be part of these exciting new strands we'd love to hear from you.

The Festival is committed to developing talent and supports artists and individuals who create new work, which challenges and dares to be different.

This year we are encouraging artists and individuals to submit their applications online at www.chorltonartsfestival.com. Alternatively you can print this form off and deliver it to the Festival Hub in the Precinct at the address below.
